Elizabeth "Grandma" Layton Nursing Home Series of Drawings

June 9, 2004

Presenters: Don Lambert
Mercedes Bern-Klug

Come and learn about the intriguing art work of Kansas native, Elizabeth Layton. She took her first and only art class at age 68. This class launched her on a 15 year career consisting of over 1,000 drawings. Elizabeth Layton used her colored pencils to give voice to her ideas and values about aging, love in older adulthood, and political activism. Grandma Layton gave this series of 16 drawings to the University of Kansas Medical Center with the hopes of communicating to students and health professionals what it can be like to live in a nursing home. The original drawings are on display at the Theo and Alfred M. Landon Center on Aging building.

Bring a lunch and enjoy the presentations. Refreshments and dessert provided.
