PLEASE NOTE: After the MS oral examination or the DNP or PHD oral comprehensive/dissertation defense, the Chair of the committee will sign the Progress Toward Degree form, indicating the outcome of the exam/defense and submit same to the SON Student Affairs Office. The student completing a Doctoral Dissertation must submit this document electronically (see above for instructions). The MS student completing the Research Project requirement must submit one copy of the complete project paper (including a signed title page and summary) and one loose copy of the signed title page and summary. Only after these items are received will the Progress Toward Degree form be submitted to the Graduate School for final graduation processing. In addition, for MS students taking the oral exam during the last semester of didactic work (for example: taking the exam in spring semester when one has only practicum left for the next session), the Progress Toward Degree form will not be submitted to the Graduate School until after the didactic course grades have been received.
